

How big is a 48 x 18 tank?

After purchase get all the way home, with the box clearly marked 48 X 18. It's two 22 inches. How does that make 48?? Needless to say it didn't fit my 75 gal tank and now I have to make another trip. Wasted the time and gas. Ugh. No, I do not recommend this product. Helpful? We're sorry to hear about your experience and want to make things right.

What is a Eagle 48 gallon Qik-Assembly Cabinet?

Get a quote Eagle 48 Gallon Modular Quik-Assembly Cabinet ideal for lab or industrial settings. Made of heavy-duty High Density Polyethylene (HDPE) and can be assembled in minutes without tools. This 48 Gallon Model is a stand alone unit. Can be assembled with the option of the lockable door opening to the right or left.

Does the Aqueon lid fit a 48 inch tank?

Aqueon has a thick trim and a center top support that is a couple inches wide so this is a 2 piece lid and not a full 48" so the reviews stating it is a horrible lid are a bit misleading. True, this won't fit an open 48" top, but is meant for the Aqueon center braced tanks, not universal. Yes, I recommend this product. Helpful?

Does a 55 gallon tank need a 48 x 12 cover?

No, a 55 requires a 48" x 12" cover, i. e. two 24" x 12" covers. Helpful? Is this the lid for the 60 gallon breeder tank? It should be. The 75 and the 60B have the same 48" x 18" footprint, so it should fit both.
